

Shell

so i'm a shell you see
all edgy magic on the sand but there's no sound
inside your ear
when you hold me near

and if there is a noise that sounds like life
its not from me
but just your own heart beat

now put me back
along the wash
and let the sandy water
change me into
sand in water

then there's peace
